Frank Shakespeare

On 1 August the U.S. Senate confirmed President Reagan's nomination of Frank Shakespeare to become Ambassador to Portugal.

Mr. Shakespeare was born in 1925 in New York City. After graduating from Holy Cross College, he served as a U.S. Navy officer on an aircraft carrier in the Pacific. From 1950-1969 he held various positions with CBS Incorporated, including President of CBS Television Services.

In 1969 President Nixon appointed Mr. Shakespeare to be Director of the USIA, a position he held until 1973. During this time, he visited over 80 countries, overseeing the Agency's operations. He later became Executive Vice President of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation, and later served as President and Vice Chairman of RKO General Incorporated.

From 1981-1985 Mr. Shakespeare was Chairman of the Board for International Broadcasting, overseeing Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. He was Chairman of the Board for the Heritage Foundation from 1982-1985.

Mr. Shakespeare has served as Director of the American Council on Germany, the JM Foundation, the Institute for Educational Affairs, The National Review, and American Spectator. He resigned this positions when he was nominated to become Ambassador to Portugal.

Mr. Shakespeare is a Knight of Malta, and a trustee of Hillsdale College. He is married and has three children.
